The Orange County Saber Alliance did it again!! Capturing the hearts and minds of the young children and adults at the Warwick Square Apartments on Friday March 28th. The kids loved seeing the Jedi and Lord Vader.

One of our centers is having a resource fair on May 17th 2008 and would love to have some costumed characters and ideally a show to entertain the kids (who are we kidding, it's entertaining for the adults too).

When: Saturday May 17th, 12:00pm-3:00pm

Where:

Family Resource Center at Hermosa Village Apartments

1515 Calle Del Mar, Anaheim, Ca 92802

"This weapon is your life!" Obi-Wan to Anakin

Obiwan was partially right. Serving the community in creative and productive ways is our life. The life blood of the club! if your not already a member and would like to serve the community with us. Go to our web site and click on the "Our forums" link to join us today.

We have changed the Saber Academy name from: The Orange County Saber Academy to: Orange County Saber Alliance! Our logo will soon reflect this change

Our Alliance students undergo some of the most intense training available outside of a martial arts dojo. The influence of the various disciplines of martial arts is apparent in the way our fighters perform. We are not martial artists, however, and actual martial arts are not allowed in the alliance classes. Safety is our number one concern for all of our fighters, and our stringent rules reflect this.

Our Logo reflects the good vs bad, the Yin/Yang relationship. The crossed red and blue saber's represent the Good (Jedi) VS Bad (Sith) and the yin-yang symbol represents the balance of the light and dark sides of the force. The orange death star represents a tongue in cheek view of our mother county.

As your President, I would like to take this time to welcome our new members, Thank our old members and let every one know that the OCSWS ROCKS!

To our new members: You are about to embark on a journey with one of the best Fan Force Clubs around. We welcome you with open arms and ask that if you have any questions during your time with us, you need only ask. We encourage participation and thank you once again for joining us.

This year has brought about many changes, from an election of a new President/Vice President. We have succeeded areas and achieved many goals that we didn't think were possible. Within the next few months a few more changes are coming. I would especially like to thank those members who have gone above and beyond the call of duty.
